EAKS' TRIPLE WITH THREE ON IN NINTH WINS GOOD GAME FOR LOCAL SQUAD

First Sacker Cracks Out Blow Which Sends Three Runs Over

UNUSUAL DOUBLE PLAY COSTS THE TWINS RUNS

Uphill Game Fought by Locals Who Come From Behind to Cop

Joe Eaks, local first sacker, had a bad day yesterday. If he hadn't been so all-fired weak at the willow, the Twins might have won a ball game by a score of 100 to 5, but as Joe was able to slam out only a double and a couple of triples out of five tries, the Twins defeated Russellville just 6 to 5. Yea, verily, Joe was taking a Babe Ruth cut at the ball yesterday.

The most spectacular of his three extra base clouts came in the ninth with the bases loaded. One man was gone, when Joe escorted his trusty bludgeon to the plate, smashed a long triple between Mott and Davidson and brought an interesting ball game to an end.

In view of the thrills of the ninth, all other innings sink into insignificance. Sells pitched good ball, but bunched hits and two errors, together with a hit batsman in the third gave Russellville a lead which looked safe. Entering the ninth with the score 5 to 3 against them, the Twins began determined efforts to prevent the Miners taking three straights.

Johnston stung one at Martin, who muffed the ball and Joe was safe as a starter of the sensational last inning. Moseley, who together with Russell, makes up a pair of the best hitting pitchers in the league, stroled to the plate for Sells and slashed a single to right, Johnston taking second. Spitz attempted to bunt, but his foul was taken care of by Gibson.

McDuff came through in the pinch with a blow to Cooper, his second single of the contest, and the bases were crowded. It was at this juncture that Eaks interpolated his now famous three play crash which sent Johnston, Moseley and McDuff scurrying around the paths with the tying and winning markers. 'Twas the perfect end of an otherwise rather imperfect day. The dramatic climax brought the customers standing up and the crippled Eaks was given a joyous hand and a pocketful of change as he wended his way homeward.

The long runs which Joe was forced to make yesterday failed to improve his "charley horse," which has been causing him no end of trouble of late and last night the crack first sacker was hardly able to walk. He was left behind when the team departed for Russellville and will get a day's rest. It is likely that he will be back in the line-up by the Fourth of July if not before. If Russell does not pitch today, he will cover first probably.

Aside from the ninth, yesterday's feature was one of the most unusual double plays on record, which cost the Twins one or more runs in the seventh. Johnston led with a single to left, Sells sent him to second with a duplicate. Spitz hit to Lowry and Johnston was caught at third.

With two on and one out, McDuff hit safely to right. Mott threw to Gibson to head off Sells, who had rounded third. Gibson tossed to New-some to catch McDuff on first and then ensued a remarkable sort of double chase, Mott, Gibson and Newsome finally being credited with a double play when they retired both McDuff and Sells, tagging out both on the

Major Gover Will Arrive on Friday

A telegram dated at Washington to relatives, says Major Lewis Gover, U. S. M. C., will arrive here tomorrow morning, after an absence of over two years in Haiti. He has many friends here who will extend him a hearty welcome.

Columbia People To Present Opera Here On Fourth

"Pocohontas," and Indian operetta, will be presented here on the night of the Fourth of July by Columbia, Tenn., talent under the auspices of the Morgan Kiwanis club for the benefit of the Benevolent hospital, it was announced today. The program will be given at the Princess theatre.

Columbia people will unit with citizens of Albany-Decatur in observance of the Fourth. Fans of that city are planning to come here on a special train to witness the two baseball games between the Mules and the Twins, while the cast of "Pocohontas" will add nearly a hundred more to the crowd from the Tennessee city who will spend their holiday in the Twin Cities.

The cast is composed of the best talent in Columbia and upon its recent presentation there scored a triumph. Columbia has a reputation over the larger part of the South for the dramatic and musical talent the city possesses and the performers who present "Pocohontas" are said to be all-stars in the true meaning of the phrase.

W. H. Jackson, one of the live wire real estate men of Columbia, and a member of the Kiwanis club of that city, was here today completing arrangements for the production.

The curtain will go up promptly at 8 o'clock in order to permit the many visitors from North Alabama cities to return to their homes as early as possible. Many Columbia people will motor down for the Fourth in addition to those who will come by train.

Among those in the cast are many of Columbia's most prominent men and women, many of them gifted far beyond the average amateur and a finished performance will be given.

SANITARY EXPERT CHECKS UP WORK OF DR. JOHNSON

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 30.—Dr. J. A. LaPrince, senior sanitary engineer of the United States public health service, will spend the remainder of this week in Alabama in checking up the work of E. B. Johnson, sanitary engineer, who is carrying on the malaria-control work in the counties of Talladega, Tuscaloosa, Sumter and Morgan, according to information made public by the state health department yesterday.

During the tour of Alabama Dr. LaPrince also will overlook the malaria control work being done by the state board of health at Duncan's Rifles on the Coosa river, where the Alabama Power Company will at once begin the construction of another unit of its hydro-electric plant.

Dr. LaPrince checked up the work of Sanitary Engineer Carter in Geneva county last week. He is well known in public health work throughout the United States, was Dr. Gorgas' chief sanitary assistant in the campaigns against yellow fever and malaria in Cuba and the canal zone and was in control of the malaria control work of the United States army during the war.

Soft Drink Men on the Defensive

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 30.—Soft drink men of Montgomery who have been arrested during the past two Sundays on charges of violating the Sunday observance laws issued a public statement today in which they denied that they were interested in the movement to test the validity of the state law creating the department of law enforcement agents. They declared they had no desire to violate any law and were willing to work with all other agencies in observing the law, but that they were forced to remain open for the protection of their own interests.

The soft drink dealers called attention to the fact that drug stores are permitted to remain open on Sunday and to dispose of the very things which soft drink men are supposed not to sell on Sunday. The statement indicated that the soft drink dealers would be willing to close if the drug stores would refrain from disposing of soft drinks and kindred beverages and articles on the Sabbath.

Also Helped in Saving Bathers

Another local boy today loomed as a possibility for a Carnegie medal. Inadvertently the name of Ben Wright, who aided materially in rescuing the two ladies at the bathing beach, was omitted from yesterday's story of the heroic act.

NORTH ALABAMA B. AND L. IS PAYING ANNUAL DIVIDEND

The North Alabama Building & Loan Association is today mailing out checks to its stockholders representing semi-annual dividend which was declared at a recent meeting of its board of directors. The dividend is at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, and the total dividend declared for the six months' period runs to more than $12,000.

This Association is now closing its ninth year during which time it has grown to where it now has more than $375,000 paid in capital. During the past twelve months its resources have increased more than $100,000 which is the largest increase it has ever shown in that period of time.

The Association has aided more than 300 persons in the building and acquiring homes and during the nine years of operations has made only three foreclosures.

The following representative business and professional men compose its directorate: W. H. Aycock, J. S. Patterson, W. Eugene Sivley, F. H. Pointer, S. A. Lynne, T. G. Morrow, John A. Thomason, Clyde Hendrix, F. G. Cook and A. T. Hanson.

Clyde Hendrix is President, F. H. Pointer, W. E. Sivley, and John A. Thomason are Vice Presidents and A. T. Hanson Secretary.

Street Car Fares Raised in Capital

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 30.—Residents of Montgomery who pay cash for street car rides must part with eight cents for each trip on and after July 1 but those who purchase tickets will continue to pay the rate which has been in effect for many months under a decision of the public service commission made public yesterday afternoon. In recent months the rate has been seven cents.

The public service commission was divided on the decision, President A. G. Patterson voting against any increase and Associate Commissioners B. H. Cooper and S. P. Gaillard voting to make the new rate effective as a trial for three months beginning July 1. The commission retained jurisdiction of the case in order that further proceedings either decreasing or increasing the rates may be had.

IRISH EXTREMISTS THREATEN TO SET UP NEW REPUBLIC TO PREVENT PEACE

De Valera Warned Not to Accept the Lloyd George Proposals

ARMY COMMANDER IS IN A DEFIANT MOOD

Mike Collins Quoted as Declaring That He Never Will Surrender

DUBLIN, June 30.—Arthur Griffith, founder and president of the Sinn Fein and Dr. Mac Neil, who is high in the councils of the Irish republic were released from Mount Joy prison today.

LONDON, June 30.—Irish extremists are threatening to revolt and set up a new government if Eamonn De Valera continues peace negotiations in compliance with Premier Lloyd George's latest proposal, according to information reaching Whitehall this afternoon.

Mike Collins, so-called commander in chief of the Irish republican army, is reported to have announced that he will never surrender even if the rest of Ireland does so.

If the pale or central section surrenders, the counties of Cork and Kerry will continue to hold out, according to the information attributed to Collins.

AGRICULTURAL BILL IS REPORTED OUT

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The senate agricultural committee voted today to report favorably to the senate the Norris bill, to create a $100,000,000 government corporation to dispose of surplus American agricultural products in foreign markets.

The only vote recorded against the bill in the committee was that of Senator Harrison, Democrat, of Mississippi, who announced he would seek to amend the bill in the senate to remove the purchasing powers given the corporation and to eliminate some of the parts of the measure which overlap existing governmental agencies.

CONTRACTOR CAN KEEP THE PROFITS

(International News Service)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 30.—The decision of the Montgomery County circuit court that Algernon Blair did not have to divide the profits made from the erection of the Camp Sheridan buildings with I. O. Anderson and other Montgomery contractors was this morning affirmed by the Alabama Supreme court. All of the contractors in the city were after the contract at first but withdrew, leaving the field to Mr. Blair. After he built the camp they entered suit against him for 70 per cent of the profits, claiming they assisted in securing the contract.

SHEET METAL CO. FORMS CORPORATION

Announcement was made today of the incorporation of the Southern Sheet Metal Works, incorporated, formerly Young and Puckett, sheet metal workers. The headquarters are on Second avenue.

The capital stock is $5,000 and officers are: George W. Young, president; Ollie E. Schrickel, secretary; Quinn Puckett, superintendent. The plant will manufacture all articles in the sheet metal line.

FLEET OFFICERS CONVINCED THAT BATTLESHIPS ARE SAFE FROM BOMB

Eighty Are Dropped on Iowa, But Only Two Direct Hits Made

ATTACK ON THE SHIP LASTED TWO HOURS

Airmen Have Considerable Difficulty in Hitting the Discarded Battleship

(International News Service)
ON BOARD THE U. S. S. HENDERSON, at Sea, June 30.—Officers of the Atlantic fleet who followed the air attack upon the discarded battleship Iowa were confident today that the test had proved that the modern battleship is comparatively safe from aerial bombardment.

About 80 bombs were aimed at the Iowa by the four bombing machines that carried out the attack, and the official report showed only two direct hits upon the Iowa's forecastle. There was no defense from the Iowa. The attack lasted two hours.

ANOTHER VETERAN CALLED BY DEATH

William Massie Byrd, aged 82 years a Confederate veteran, died this morning at 6:30 o'clock in his apartments in the Tavern. He is survived by two sons, William M. Byrd Jr., of Chicago; John U. Byrd, of Cincinnati; two daughters, Mrs. L. J. Haley, of Birmingham and Mrs. Dred Demmick, of Philadelphia; two sisters, Miss Sallie Byrd and Mrs. P. H. Pitts, of Selma.

Mr. Byrd served with distinction in the law department of the United States government during the administration of Grover Cleveland. He practiced law in Dallas County, Alabama, for many years. During the Civil war, Mr. Byrd served on the staffs of John T. Morgan and Joseph Wheeler. He had made his home at the Tavern about 7 years.

The remains were taken to the undertaking establishment on Ferry street this morning and will be conveyed to Birmingham Friday morning at 7 o'clock, interment being made there Friday afternoon.

John H. Wallace Gets High Honor

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 30.—Notice of his appointment as a member of the advisory board under the migratory bird treaty act of the United States was received today by John H. Wallace, Jr., state commissioner of conservation, from E. D. Ball, acting secretary of the United States department of agriculture. Mr. Wallace has been a member of the board since the act was passed several years ago. Associates of the Alabama commissioner are some of the most prominent conservationists of the United States. The board has acted in an advisory capacity with the officials of the department of agriculture in negotiating treaties with other nations of the western hemisphere for the protection of migratory birds.

Negro is Forced to Hang Himself by Angry Mississippi Mob After Attack

(International News Service)

JACKSON, MISS., June 30.—Red Bilbro, negro farm hand, was lynched by a mob in Madison county, 20 miles north of here, late Wednesday afternoon, and F. M. Pace, on whose place he was a tenant, was brought to Jackson and placed in a hospital with his throat cut and a fractured skull. Pace had trouble with the negro about neglecting his work. The negro slipped up behind Pace, hit him over the head with a spade and cut his

Friendly Pledge Made by Curzon, at London Today

LONDON, June 30.—"This will stand as a sign that two great nations (Great Britain and America), are henceforth one," said Marquis Curzon today in accepting a statue of George Washington. The statue was unveiled in Trafalgar square with imposing ceremonies. A delegation of Virginians came to London to make the donation.

Marquis Curzon, who was chosen to accept the statue in behalf of England, is foreign secretary in the British cabinet.

The presentation was made by President James Lewis Smith of Washington-Lee University, Lexington, Va., one of the finished orators of America, whose graceful address has called forth international approval and commendation.

GOVERNOR KILBY AND TAX PEOPLE HOLD CONFERENCE

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 30.—Governor Kilby and members of the state tax commission held a conference yesterday afternoon with George Gordon Crawford, president of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company. Augustus Benner, general counsel for the company, and Mr. Ellis, tax agent. After the conference Governor Kilby stated that the tax assessments of the company were discussed but he said he could not at this time make public the details of the conference.

The tax assessments of this company are included in those which were set aside last year and were involved in the recent decision of the Supreme court which held that the tax commission has the power under the revenue law of 1919 to require all tax payers to produce their books and records in the county in which they operate for the purpose of examination by agents of the tax commission.

Although the governor and other state officials would not give the details of the conference, they did state that the subject of the immediate payment of the tax regardless of the final adjudication of the dispute was not mentioned. A report from Birmingham was that an effort would be made to obtain an agreement whereby the company would pay the taxes it admits to be due, thus relieving Jefferson county of its financial burdens which have been ever increasing since the large assessments were set aside. Governor Kilby denied that this was the purpose of the meeting.

Tire Business is on Upgrade Now

There's more cheer in Akron, Ohio, the rubber center of the world, these days. Great improvement in the tire business is making the wheels go round in the big rubber factories at a great rate, and as a result hundreds of men have been added to the factory forces.

Following the announcement of a few days ago that the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company was increasing production and re-hiring former employees, now comes the announcement of further increases both in production figures and in the number of men to be taken on in the Goodyear factories. This will necessitate the employment of hundreds of additional men.

Negro is Forced to Hang Himself by Angry Mississippi Mob After Attack

Bilbro was caught near Flora. The sheriff tried to take possession of him, but members of the capturing party took the sheriff's gun away from him and carried the negro to the Pace farm where, after being identified by Mrs. Pace, he confessed. The mob carried the negro about three miles away, placed a rope around his neck and forced him to climb a tree to a limb on which the rope had been tied and jump out, hanging himself.

TAX AMENDMENT WAS NOT LEGALLY ADOPTED STATES SUPREME COURT

Decision Will Cost Many Ex-Service Men Their Official Positions

TEST CASE DECIDED BY STATES' HIGHEST COURT

Twenty Thousand Men Who Fought Are to be Disfranchised

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 30.—Twenty thousand voters were disfranchised and scores of office holders will lose their positions as a result of the decision of the Supreme court today holding that the constitutional amendment giving ex-service men the right to vote without paying poll taxes was not constitutionally adopted because the legislature gave the governor the power to fix the date of the election, whereas the constitution says the date must be fixed by the lawmakers.

By this decision the Supreme court ousted A. B. Hooper, an ex-service man from a position as jury commissioner of Marshall county. The decision upheld the decision earlier in the year invalidating the state's $25,000,000 bond issue for good roads.

CHILD DROWNED IN MISSISSIPPI RIVER

George O. Feyerabend, has returned to his home in Albany, after his sad visit to Vicksburg, Miss., where he and Mrs. Feyerabend were called last week on account of the death by drowning of their little grand son, Evan Wellington Jones. The boy was swept away by the Mississippi river while bathing near his home in Vicksburg. It was several days before the body was found, according to The Vicksburg Daily Herald, received here by friends of the bereaved family yesterday. That news paper says in its issue of June 28th: "The body of the child was recovered at Burn, La., 45 miles below Vicksburg. The authorities identified the body as that of Evan Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones of Vicksburg. The bright and attractive little fellow was drowned while bathing in the treacherous Mississippi river just below the ferry landing. This is a favorite swimming place for the boys who love to take the waves from the big transfer boat. The relatives of the little boy who met such a sad fate are hoping and praying that other boys will keep away from the river, its undercurrent, whirl pools, step-offs, forming just so many traps for men and women as well as boys, and whose toll of human life runs into the thousands."

"The great sorrow of the parents and other relatives are softened by the tender solicitude shown by the people on every hand and the gentle ministrations of friends, everybody trying to assist in some way. Mrs. Jones' parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Feyerabend, of Albany, Ala., hastened to Vicksburg when they were apprised of the drowning of their grand son. He attended Miss Clara Bochart's private school and the Presbyterian Sunday School. He is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones, his father being a member of the firm of Dutton and Jones foundry and machine works; two sisters, Misses Jennie Louise and Clara Jones, and one brother George. He was born in Columbia, Tenn., February 11, 1911. His funeral took place yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, proceeding from Fisher's Funeral Chapel. The services were conducted by Rev. Augustus M. Ayers, Pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The pall bearers were Albert Jervis, a cousin of Albany, Ala.; W. E. Flippin, John Hutchinson and Peter Mackey, of Vicksburg."

The same paper stated that Mrs. Feyerabend would remain, for some time, in Vicksburg but that Mr. Feyerabend would return home this week.

"SIL NOW" A NEW SLOGAN

A cartoon that is attracting considerable attention, shows the picture of a merry-go-round, that has stopped running for the moment. There stand the tiny cars with their occupants full of expectancy for the next start. There is the traveling salesman, credit man, banker, builder, shipper, broker, merchant, manufacturer, employed, unemployed, employer, wholesaler and retail merchants, and so on up the gold reserve and foreign credits. It is fair to say, that once these different classes of workers should decide to start up all together and all along the line for a strong, long pull all together, that the merry-go-round, would at once become a scene of activity. Because a watched pot refuses to boil, perhaps it is just as well to stop trying to pry into the secrets of why this and why that, and just go to work on some big plans and schemes. As everybody's business is nobody's business, the recipes of the many for just how to cure industrial ills may as well be abandoned, and the simple remedies of thrift and every day effort be used.

It is the habit of men everywhere, however, to first of all seek out the causes of conditions, and to seek to control circumstances by some well thought out plan, with little attention to the old doctrine of "doing the duty that lies nearest." There is the well known fable, of the quails in the wheat field, that may throw some light on present duty. The little quails one morning were reported to have told their parents, that they had heard the farmer saying to his boys, that they must get their neighbors to come and help them cut down the grain of the wheat field in which the quail family had its nest. The little quails were very much disturbed, and urged their parents to make all haste to move. But they were told to remain quietly in the nest as no danger was near. A few days later, the farmer was reported to the old quails, as saying to his boys that the uncles and cousins of the farmers were to be invited to help cut the wheat. This information failed to move the old quails. They advised their young, to have no fear, as the farmer would fail to get the help of his kin, just as he had failed to get the assistance of his neighbors. But when the old quails heard that the farmer had said: "My sons, since we can get no aid from without, we must cut the wheat ourselves," they became more frightened than even the little quails had been at the previous reports and ordered that no effort be spared and that all haste be made to get out of the wheat field at once. For it was held as true in the quail family, that when people begin to do for themselves there is something doing, and that with out delay!

The business men of this and nearly all American communities are the descendants of men who did not wait on others, on fate, on a fair day, or any thing else for a time to act. The pioneer Americans did things now, they did not just put up a sign in the office to "do it now." The men who made America—and the same kind of men, must continue to make and improve America—conquered the wilderness forests with their strong arms and sharp axes; they withstood the wild beasts and wild red men, they over came all obstacles both with their superior brain and brawn.

Just at this time there is a movement on foot headed by F. H. Sissons, president of a great banking house in New York, that has as its motto: "Sell it now," and the promoters of the movement are insisting that a successful campaign for larger sales must be carried out if, normal conditions ever come about. Mr. Sissons says: "that for a year or more people have been discounting the future but that now they need to 'cash' the present. There are ample indications that readjustment has run its course in many directions and the foundation for a steady, safe and sane revival of business has been laid. The best and quickest way to speed this revival is to buy now. That will supply the motive power to turn the wheels of industry, which have slowed down or stopped."

He also explains that "sell now" must mean "buy now." But he claims that the initiative must remain with the salespeople. He says they will furnish the "incentive" that will start the merry-go-round of business at full speed and keep it going.

It is not the plate glass mirrors of the Restaurant, but the food in the plate that delights the inner man.

AN APPRECIATIVE "CLOSE-UP" OF OUR LONE CONGRESSWOMAN

Much has been printed and said about the one woman member of congress. Our readers, especially women readers, will be interested in this sincere diagnosis of her, from the pen of another woman, herself the wife of a congressman of the opposite political faith. The writer in question is Mrs. Edward B. Almon. Mrs. Almon's husband is one of the leading representatives from Alabama—an ardent Democrat, of course; he is now serving his fourth term in the house. Mrs. Almon has been in close association with the "lady legislator" and accordingly she has had the opportunity to draw for us a more than usual intimate picture of a woman who is making the world sit up and take notice. Miss Robertson is a Republican in politics, but she is too big and broad-minded to put partisanship above country or above humanity. She is the type of person that the nation needs in the public service—irrespective of whether they belong to this party or that. The only trouble is that it is difficult to induce citizens of such high character and exceptional ability to run for office. Miss Robertson, as everybody knows, stands out above the average public woman for the very reason that she is "different." She is not in office either for the salary or the "pull" it gives her; hers is a true case of the office seeking the man. If the citizens of every congressional district in the country would pick a representative who was in all respects as worthy as Miss Robertson we would come very much nearer having a government of, for and by the people. With this introduction, the Pathfinder new presents to its readers Mrs. Edward B. Almon:

She is a wonder! She is not merely on the stage of life playing a part but she is playing her part, and playing it so well that she is a big, happy headliner, right in the spotlight, receiving plaudits of the public and the applause and approval of her colleagues in congress. Of course I am talking about Miss Alice M. Robertson of Oklahoma, the second woman ever elected to the congress of the United States, and the only woman member of the present congress. After the November election newspapers and magazines all over the country said much about her sterling qualities and excellent qualifications, and still there was a little lingering prejudice against a woman in congress. Miss Robertson was quoted as saying she had never worn a pair of silk stockings and would never wear high heels. The paragraphers had commented freely on other little fads and foibles the fancies of hers so that the people expected to see in the new congresswoman a freakish-looking, cranky old maid. She is so entirely different from what they expected that everybody is surprised and delighted. She came, she saw, she conquered, and has made a splendid impression. And right here I want to say that if there were more women of Miss Robertson's type there would be less opposition to woman suffrage and less prejudice against women holding high offices. She is a remarkable woman. Also she is something new under the sun, for where could you find another woman whose head would not be a wee bit turned by all the wonderful things that have happened to this wonderful woman in the last few months? According to her own statement she was not a volunteer but was drafted into the political game. An avowed antisuffragist and a very busy woman with her own affairs, she had never thought of being a candidate for congress until some of her discerning and admiring friends who knew her capability and the extent of her popularity talked it over and determined that she must be their next representative in congress. They told her she was the only person in the district who could defeat the candidate on the other ticket, and urged her to enter the race. Being persuaded that it was her duty she went into it heart and soul and fought a vigorous fight in the open along with her friends who were working for her election. She was literally transplanted from the farm and cafeteria in Muskogee to the halls of congress in the nation's capital. Wherever she goes the people flock around her and make a fuss over her, and she accepts it all with easy grace and dignity. The second district of Oklahoma, no doubt, pats itself on the back and feels like the little boy who was eating his Christmas pie, when "he put in his thumb and pulled out a plum and said 'what a good boy am I.'" Only theirs was a political pie and they pulled out a "peach." That they feel a deep pride in her and sincere affection for her, and that her new friends and acquaintances appreciate and admire her is attested almost every day by the quantities of rare and beautiful flowers that are received at her hotel. In her office there are vases of flowers on every desk and table and window ledge.—From the Pathfinder, Washington, D. C.

PRESIDENT SIGNS APPROPRIATION BILL

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 30.—President Harding today signed the army appropriation bill, decreasing the size of the American army from 220,000 to 150,000 men and in so doing he transmitted a brief message to both houses of congress, expressing the "embarrassment" which the action causes the administration at this time. The President pointed out that it is doubtful if the reduction can be effected without the summary dismissal of thousands of men from the army "who have a right to expect from the hands of the government the same moral obligation which the government requires of them when they enlist for service."

PANAMA FAILS TO CONVINCE HUGHES

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 30.—Having considered all the arguments offered by Panama against the acceptance of the White boundary award, Secretary of States Hughes has rejected them and Panama will be informed that terms of the award will be carried out, it was learned today. The two months time limit which was set for Panama's compliance with the terms of Secretary Hughes' note is now expiring and the state department will insist upon immediate action by Panama to meet the demands made in the note.

Wooden Fleet is to be Sold

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 30.—The United States shipping board announced today that the entire fleet of 237 wooden vessels constructed during the war, and aggregating 900,000 tons deadweight, will be sold as speedily as possible. Bids will be opened July 30. The sale of the vessels which are now anchored and deteriorating in the various ports, is the first step in carrying out the administration's policy to get the "government out of the shipping business."

Still Each Day Officers' Record

On Tuesday Officers Howell, Hampton and Hardy raided a still in Limestone county on Limestone creek capturing 300 gallons of beer. On Wednesday the same officers captured a still near Mason's Island in Limestone county, taking about 400 gallons of beer.

This morning, near Crowton, the above officers with officer Daniel, of the State Law Enforcement raided a still, getting about 200 gallons of beer.

In each case the stills were destroyed by the officers. These raids by these officers constitute a still captured one or more each day for each day of the week.

SHERIFF'S SALE.
State of Alabama vs. A. D. Turney. By virtue of Fieri Facias issued out of the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court of Morgan County, and State of Alabama, and to me directed, whereby I am commanded to make the amount of a certain Judgment recently obtained against A. D. Turney out of the goods, chattels, lands and tenements of the said A. D. Turney. I have levied on the following property, to-wit:

N. E. 1-4 of N. E. 1-4 Section 12, Township 8 R. 3 W. 40. A. L. A. in N. E. corner N. 1-3 of S. E. 1-4 of N. E. 1-4 Section 12 Township 8 R. 3 W. All of which is laying and being in Morgan county, Alabama.

Therefore, according to said command, I shall expose for sale, at Public Auction, all the right, title, and interest of the above-named A. D. Turney in and to the above described property, on the 25 day of July, 1921 during the legal hours of sale at the court house in Morgan County, Alabama.

Dated at Decatur, Ala., this 23rd day of June 1921.
J. V. MAY,
Sheriff Morgan County Ala.

GULFPORT, MISS., TO GET U. S. HOSPITAL

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 30.—Surgeon General Hugh Cummins today announced that the government has formally taken over the former navy camp and hospital at Gulfport, Miss., for conversion into a sanitarium for shell-shocked patients.

The Gulfport hospital will receive patients principally from Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and adjoining sections.

Surgeon G. A. Kempf has been placed in charge at Gulfport, with Assistant Surgeon Mahoney as executive officer.

ANGLO-JAP TREATY TO BE TOOTHLESS

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 30.—The Anglo-Japanese alliance, in which the United States is vitally interested, will be renewed, but in such a way that all the teeth will be taken out of it, according to reliable information which has reached Washington from the imperial conference now going on in London.

The status of the disarmament situation today is that both the senate and house have adopted by overwhelming votes the Borah amendment to the naval bill, authorizing and requesting the President to invite Great Britain and Japan to meet and talk of limiting armament for five years. It is now up to President Harding. He can take the steps whenever, in his judgment, he deems the time to be ripe.

WOMEN JURIES IS INVOLVED IN CASE

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, O., June 30.—Let the eyes of the women of the nation turn to the Kaber case. It may have far-reaching importance. Francis Poulson, attorney for Mrs. Katherine Kaber, alleged husband slayer, announced today that if the challenges of the defense are exhausted before every woman in the jury box is eliminated, an appeal will be taken to have the United States Supreme court determine whether the amendment enfranchising women, gives them the right to serve as jurors. Women have sat on juries in Ohio since the adoption of this amendment.

If the United States court should uphold the ruling of the Ohio courts, women of every state would be given the right to sit as jurors.

The large tent of the Church of Christ on Grant street was well filled last night in spite of the fact that it was regular prayer meetings night in the Twin Cities and also pay day.

Evangelist Brewer is in splendid condition in spite of his long trip and incessant labors and preached a same stirring sermon on the first of his announced series on "The Christ which was Christ The Gift of God's Love."

He is an earnest and eloquent speaker possessing an easy flow of the choicest English and it was the confession of all who heard him that it was good to be there. The church only asks you to come once knowing that you will want to come again.

DOSS-BAINS

Announcement of the marriage in Newport, Arkansas, June 27, of Miss Mary Frances Bains to Mr. Gillman H. Doss will be received with much interest by friends here. The bride's home was in Newport, while the groom is a prominent young business man of Hartselle. The ceremony was quietly observed in the Methodist church at Newport in the presence of the immediate family only. Mr. and Mrs. Doss are now on their honeymoon in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. VanArsdale leave tomorrow for an extended trip through the North and East. While away they will visit Cincinnati, Cleveland, Niagara Falls, New York and Atlantic City. While in New York they will pay a visit to relatives. This trip was planned for last summer but had to be postponed on account of the illness of Mrs. VanArsdale.

MRS. H. R. DAVIS'VISITOR COMPLIMENTED

Miss Hattie Schechter of New Albany, Indiana, house guest of Mrs. H. R. Davis, was the charming inspiration yesterday afternoon for a sunflower bridge party, when Mrs. O. C. Parker entertained in her home from 3-30 until 6 o'clock at her home on Gordon Drive. Sunflowers were the blossoms selected to decorate the living room, and library, where the four tables of participants played the interesting game of bridge, the color scheme, yellow and black, predominating throughout.

On the count a lovely bottle of imported toilet water fell to Mrs. R. T. Sheppard. The consolation prize was cut by Mrs. Earley Phinixy. At sunset, a delightful frozen salad further emphasizing the color scheme was served, Mesdames T. H. Alexander and C. L. Saunders assisting in serving.

Miss Schechter was exquisitely gowned in a fashion of orchid organdy. The guest list in addition to hostess and honoree included: Mesdames D. J. Perkins, Earley Phinixy, H. R. Davis, T. H. Alexander, E. P. Calvin, Marvin Rankin, John Garrison, B. E. Prent, R. T. Sheppard, T. A. Caddell, W. A. Green, W. C. Bailey, C. L. Saunders, A. B. Codrington and Miss Mary Williams.

Miss Thelma King, of Montgomery, is an attractive visitor of Mrs. R. V. Timberlake of East Vine street.

WHAT PARIS IS WEARING

(International News Service)
White kid or buckskin low shoes are the only proper ones to wear with pale organdie dresses. Some of the smartest models are frequently decorated with pipings of black patent leather. The double strap fastening is the most popular this season.

Exceedingly smart the wide scarfs of moire or taffeta ribbon trimmed with long silk fringes. These scarfs may today be used as a belt on a light Summer dress, yet tomorrow will serve as sole garniture on a large floppy garden hat.

Huge organdie flowers placed at the proper angle will transform a very simple but well-cut frock into a thing of beauty. The summer silk tailors are divided into two classes—those with exceedingly short loose box coats and those with coats reaching way down to the very hem of the skirt. All the skirts are simple, with but a very little fullness at the sides. White linen bordered with strips of color makes delightful Summer suits. Pongee is very popular. A charming combination consists of a "melange" of jade green and citron pongee. Foulard also makes a number of very effective Summer suits.

NEGRO IS HERO

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 30.—(Special)—James H. Landrum, eight year old negro, died a hero's death in the waters of Genetta ditch yesterday. His playmate, James Weaver, nine, went into water over his head and was unable to reach land again. Landrum went to his aid but Weaver grabbed him and both went to their death in the water. The coroner's jury reported that both died from accidental drowning. A report of Landrum's heroism probably will be made to the Carnegie Foundation with the request that an award for heroism be given to Landrum's relatives.

COWS that get only enough protein and calcium from grass to make 20 lbs. of milk may make 30 lbs. for a time on grass alone. They do it by drawing upon their bodily tissues for the other 10 lbs. But their milk will suddenly fall off unless a concentrate is fed.

GREAT PROGRESS IS BEING MADE AT THE OIL WELL IS STATED

According to an announcement made today by the Albany-Decatur Oil & Gas Company great progress is being made daily with the drilling at English No. 1, a penetration of 70 feet being recorded during the past 24 hours.

The hard rock was passed at 382 feet, and with day and night shifts working, the well should go down at the rate of 500 feet per week from now on. Present depth slightly exceeds 600 feet.
Driller Myers, who was called to Texas some time ago, has returned, and now has the rig in fine shape for rapid work.
It is estimated that a test well of 1,500 should be completed within ninety days provided oil in paying quantities is not found before that level is reached.

COTTON MARKET SUFFERS SLUMP

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 30.—Poor cables with selling by Liverpool, Japanese and New Orleans interests caused an easier opening in the cotton market today, first prices being 8 to 11 points lower.

There also was considerable commission house selling ahead of tomorrow's government report, part of which was absorbed by Wall street houses.

Earlier weather advices were favorable, including reports of further rains in the eastern states.

Rehearing Asked in Sheriff's Case

(Montgomery Bureau, Albany-Decatur Daily.)
MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 30.—Application for rehearing has been filed by the state's legal department in the case of the state ex rel William Chandler, sheriff of Etowah county, versus H. F. Lee, state auditor, in which the court of appeals two weeks ago held that the auditor cannot refuse to issue a state warrant for the amount expended by sheriffs in feeding prisoners even though the sheriffs fail or refuse to furnish sworn statements showing the weights of food and the cost of food furnished prisoners, which are required by the state prison inspection department under the law of 1920 providing for the feeding of prisoners in the county jail.

The application for rehearing was accompanied by a brief in support of the state's position which was prepared by Mrs. Bernice Summer Os-good, assistant attorney-general. In this brief the state contended that the prison inspector was well within his power in requiring the sheriffs to submit the additional statements and that the auditor, having the discretionary duty of approving or disapproving all accounts submitted to him for payment, had the power to refuse to issue a state warrant until the provisions of the law had been complied with.

"IDOLS OF CLAY" NEW FITZMAURICE FILM.
(Princess Today.)

The langorous South Sea islands mingle with London's Limehouse slums in George Fitzmaurice's latest production, "Idols of Clay," which will have its first local showing at the Princess Theatre Today. Mae Murray and David Powell are the featured players. The story was written by Ouida Bergere.

The central characters are Faith Merrill, a pretty, innocent creature living with her father, Jim Merrill, a derelict, and his dissolute partner, Blinky, on an obscure South Sea island.

The exciting adventures that befall Faith when she attempts to follow him form the remainder of the action.
PEARL WHITE IN

"MOUNTAIN WOMAN."

The Delite Theatre will offer as the main attraction Thursday the William Fox adaptation of Charles Neville Buck's famous novel "A Pagan of the Hills," in which Miss Pearl White is starring. The pictured version is known as "The Mountain Woman," and is said to give this beautiful star one of the finest pictures of her whole career. Which is saying a good deal when one recalls such pictures as "Tiger's Cub," "The White Moll" and "The Thief"—all three of them Fox productions, the last named being the screened version of Henri Bernstein's greatest play. Miss White's instantaneous success in emotional drama after reaching the pinnacle of fame in serial pictures has been as remarkable as it is gratifying.

Are You Still in Love?

If not, there's something wrong with you. Even beyond the age of sixty you should feel the desire and inclination to play. Most of the feelings and emotions of youth and of vigorous manhood and womanhood should continue to prevail in a healthy human body. The health and efficiency of all bodily organs depend upon the efficiency of the individual CELLS of those organs. REGENERATOR, used in conjunction with your mind, will restore the vital organs.

Is Your Heart Ail Right?

The motive power of the entire human body centers in the heart. The perfect operation of this most important organ is essential to the health and vitality of the body. As the heart pumps the blood throughout the system it is constantly feeding the millions of tiny CELLS which form the entire body organism. On the proper action of the heart, or the CELLS which compose the heart, depends the proper delivery of food and air and the removal of poisonous waste matter. Being the most vital organ of the human body, it is also one of the most sensitive, and is very susceptible to stimulation—physical, mental and emotional. Most drugs act quickly upon the heart, and are dangerous.

REGENERATOR NEW CELL STIMULANT

—contains no injurious drugs and is not a strong or dangerous stimulant. Its action on the heart is very mild and gradual, yet sufficiently strong to afford wonderful aid in correcting any ailment of this organ. It is a FOOD AND STIMULANT that strengthens and builds up the CELLS of the heart, thereby aiding in the restoration of Nature's most wonderful mechanism.

WHAT'S SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE IS SAUCE FOR THE GANDER

BUY in Albany-Decatur.

Buy goods made in Albany-Decatur from Albany-Decatur factories, wholesalers, jobbers and retailers!

Because Albany-Decatur pay rolls depend on you.

Because you depend on the pay rolls.

Because a dollar spent at home comes back to you.

Because the dollar that goes out of Albany-Decatur does not come back to you.

Because you prosper as your city prospers and cannot prosper more.

Because idle factories mean idle men and idle men are not purchasers.

Because a chain is no stronger than its weakest link; the community's purchasing power is governed by its factory operations.

Because you make your money out of Albany-Decatur.

Because you will not make money out of Albany-Decatur unless you help create Albany-Decatur pay rolls.

Because you are not mean enough to wish to receive all and give nothing to Albany-Decatur.

Because communities are bonds for the common interest (yours and that of the other fellow); he who violates that bond is drawing his own blood as well as that of his neighbor.

Because it is the sensible thing to do. He is foolish who will not help those on whom he lives.

Because buying at home is convenient; saves freight, delays and labor of correspondence and long pending claims for damages and loss in transit.

Because you have immediate recourse for weight and quantity deficiencies.

Because you can get what you want when you want it.

Because the local factory does your warehousing and hauling free of charge.

Because you sell in Albany-Decatur and the amount that you sell depends on the amount of money turned loose in Albany-Decatur.

Because you don't want to talk two ways out of the same mouth. You prefer being able to point to your own record when you ask Albany-Decatur folk to buy what you offer.

Because trade is a two-handed affair. You cannot sell to those unable to purchase. Idle factories mean inability to buy your goods.

Because it works both ways. If you don't buy Albany-Decatur goods, you have no complaint against the him who does not buy yours; yours are also Albany-Decatur goods.

Because you are not foolish enough to believe that what you do does not count. How would you feel if your customers took that view and sent their dollars out of Albany-Decatur.

Because example is contagious. If you patronize a home industry, the other fellow will.

Because you don't wish to be a community leech.

Because you don't want to be talking of things and practicing another.

Because you don't want to live off your neighbor without helping your neighbor live.

Because you can't get blood out of a turnip; you can't have purchasers without workers; factories cannot hire workers unless they can dispose of their goods.

Because you have no right to brag about Albany-Decatur to the outsider if you have not helped make Albany-Decatur.

Because it is self-protection.

Because you can't get away from your community.

Because you and the community are synonymous terms.

Because what the community is you are.
